

AUGUST 2014
(approved 9/17/14)

Boone County High School
7056 Burlington Pike
Florence, Kentucky 41042
Phone: 859-282-5655
Fax: 859-282-5653

SBDM Meeting Minutes
August 21, 2014 - BCHS Library

Members in Attendance: Mark Raleigh, Marty Steele, Alison Sutton, Marty Steele, Jill Wessman, Jennifer Ensley and Jane Cahill

1. Opening Business

A) Agenda for tonight's meeting was reviewed & accepted. Alison Sutton motioned to accept the agenda, seconded by Jane Cahill. Consensus.

B) Minutes from July 17, 2014 meeting were reviewed & approved with no amendments. Motion to accept minutes was made by Marty Steele, seconded by Jennifer Ensley, consensus.

C) Good News Reports – HVAC work has finally been completed.

D) Public Comment - Four community members present: Terry and Marge Donoghue, Bernie Kunkel, and Paige Hermann.

Mr. & Mrs. Donoghue are here to renew their objection to the book, The Bluest Eye by Toni Morrison, being available in our library. Mr. Donoghue's objection to the book is that it is pornographic and obscene. Mr. Raleigh commented that his objection had already been reviewed by an Ad Hoc Committee comprised of the school librarian, teachers, and parents. The committee's decision was furnished to Mr. Donoghue. Mr. Donoghue wants the committee to revisit his concern.

Mr. Kunkel voiced his concern that taxpayer's are paying for the undermining of our students and suggested they should take their concerns to the county attorney.

Ms. Hermann was in attendance just to observe, but after having read Mr. Donoghue's excerpts from the book, expressed her concern that the book would be available to her 9th grade student. She said she would hope that parents of students at Boone County High School would be informed when books containing this type of material are available in our library.

2. Student Achievement

A) Report ACT Watch List (handout)

Approximately 268 Seniors on the list. The list breaks down College & Career Ready scores first section are those Seniors who have met CCR requirements. The list then lists those students who have not met the requirement in one or more category and identifies those areas that need to be improved.

3. Planning

A) World Language Program Review Update – The pilot of the program review is this year and then it will be “live” next year. The focus review is for Practical Living/Career Studies, Writing and Arts & Humanities. These will make up 23% of the school’s accountability score which will reduce to 20% next year. Ben Lusk and Charlene Ball are the district contacts for program review implementation.

4. Budget Report – Members received the July Budget Report. Motion to accept Budget Report was made by Jillian Wessman, seconded by Jennifer Ensley, consensus.

5. Safety & Emergency Plan – School administrators have all been NIMS certified. All school staff has received CERT training and copies of the approved School Safety Plan.

6. New Business – Set meeting dates for this school year, meetings will continue to be held on the third Wednesday of each month at 6:30 p.m. in the school library:

September 17	February 18
October 15	March 18
November 19	April 15
December 17	May 20
January 21	June 17

Motion to adjourn by Alison Sutton, seconded by Jillian Wessman, consensus.

Next Meeting date: Wednesday, September 17, 2014

Time & Place: 6:30 p.m. BCHS Library